

Data Center Physical Security

Secure Partitioning for Data Center Environments

- Provide the ultimate level of security for your valuable information systems with Eaton Wright Line Manufactured Cages. The Cage system is the perfect solution for data center environments requiring subdivision or a higher level of security.
- Standard heights include eight, nine and ten foot options. Linear widths and depths are available in one foot increments. Standard doors are sliding with a mechanical keylock. Additional locking options can be specified, catering to all levels of security requirements
- Features and Benefits
 - Secure data center segmentation
 - Modular design for easy reconfiguration
 - Multiple standard height and width options (8', 9', 10' heights and multiple widths)
 - Multiple access control options
 - 1 and 1/2" clearance for floor tile access
 - Custom configurations available
- Data Center Applications
 - Server Farms
 - Colocation Facilities
 - Hosting Facilities
 - Internet Service Providers
 - Data Storage Sites

A fully enclosed Cage provides a secure environment in any location.

Powering Business Worldwide

